Senator Sargent, from the committee on appropriations, reported favorably on mittee: house bill making available certain unexpended balances to construct a branchmint at San Francisco. Passed.

The bill to provide for the appointment of a commission in regard to the alcoholic traffic, being the unfinished ousiness from the morning's hour of yesterday, was taken up, and the amendment of Senator Morrill [Me.], appropriating ten thousand dollars for the expenses of the commission, agreed

Senator Thurman opposed the passage of the bill, on the ground that it would be the enfering wedge for congress to enter upon legislation affecting the rights and powers of the States.

Pending the discussion, the morning hour expired, and the house bill in regard to the centennial exhibition was Senator Sumner offered a substitute for the house bill providing that the celebration of the one hundredth anniversary of American independence shall be national in its character; that the arrangements shall be left in the hands of the original commission, and shall be carried out to conform with the provisions of the act of congress, and that no money shall be appropriated from the national treasury on account of the celebration. In advocating the adoption of the amendment, Senator Sumner said that one of the first votes of the commission went to show that the celebration should be national in character. and not international, as they provided that it should be open from the anniversary of the battle of Lexington to the anniversary of the battle of Yorktown. But a change came over the guiding spirits, and they now wanted to have a world's fair. The two ideas were inconsistent, inharmonious twins, bound together by an unnatural ligament, like those two now lying on the sur-geon's table in Philadelphia. England would be invited to participate; and taking her seat on the centennial bench, would listen to the arraignment of George III, and his tyrannical qualifications. Italy would have representatives of her two sovereigns, Victor Emanuel and Pius IX. Germany would have a representative of her emperor, who be ved in right divine. Austria would be represented by her descendant of Jo-seph II, who declined an introduction no Benjamin Franklin, giving as a reasun that his business was to be a royal-Kings and queens, emperors princes and potentates would be invited, and this republic would be expected to welcome them. He did not think should be invited, as it would not be consistent with our own self respect. Another thing, a world's fair pere would be different from one in Europe; the exhibition would not have the same number of people as drawn by European exhibitions. We had but forty million people in this country while the world's fairs of London, Paris or Vienua, had all of Europe to patronize It would be premature to attempt to hold a world's fair here only three years after that at Vienna. He did not think the country able to incur the expense of this exhibition.

Senator Scott said when the house bill on this subject was passed, and sent to the senate, it was referred to the committee on foreign relations, of which Senstor Summer was then chairman. The very title of the bill referred to an International exhibition. If Boston had agreed upon as the place for holdthe exhibition, there would have been no adverse resolution in the Massachuse tis legisfature. If this international exhibition failed, it would be because of ugress refused to comply with the oblig, ation resting upon it to make it board of Nance that if congress would appropriate the was held here to-day. HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, February 27, - Mr. Typer moved to reconsider the vote by which the bill reviving the franking privilege was rejected. He said he would call it up when the members were more generally in their seats, and that his object was to move to recommit the bill to the postoffice committee, with instructions to report back the third section only, which relates to the free circulation of weekly newspapers in the countles of their publication, and the courts. Only male citizens of Michigan, against any increase in taxthe free exchange of newspapers between publishers.

The house then proceeded to the conderation of private bills. The house at forty minutes past one 'clock went into committee of the whole on the private calendar, with Mr. Orth in the chair. The committee rose and reported a number of private bills, which passed. Mr. Typer, referring to his motion to reconsider the vote rejecting the bill reviving the franking privilege, said that after thinking the matter over more fully, and taking counsel of friends, he had concluded to withdraw that motion, and he gave notice that he would introduce a bill, and move to pass it under a ension of the rules, for the free circulation of weekly newspapers.

Mr. Shanks entered a motion to reonsider the vote of vesterday rejecting the bill to revive the franking privilege, to be called up hereafter. The house then adjourned.

Synopsis of the Bill Reported to Congress Yesterday Concerning the Execution of the Laws in the Territory.

WASHINGTON, February 27 .- The bill reported by Representative McKee to-day, from the committee on Territories, cerning the execution of the laws in Utah, gives authority to the United States marshals to appoint deputies in each judicial district of that Territory. the United States, over twenty-one years of age, and for six months a resident of the Territory, shall be competent to serve as grand or petit jurors, their names to be drawn from a box, a certain number then being written on slips of paper. In all proscutions for bigamy, polygamy, or adultery, it shall not be necessary to prove either a first or subsequent marriage, by registration, or certificate thereof, or other recorded evidence; but the same may be proved by such evidence as is admissable to prove a marriage in civil cases. And proof of cohabitation by accused with more than one woman as husband and wife, his declaration or admission that such women are his wives, and his acts, recognizing, acknowledging, introductreating, or deporting himself toward them as such, shall be admissihle as evidence. Any woman, now or hereafter holding the relation of spouse or consort, and not that of lawful wife, to any man who at times cohabits with another woman as his wife, spouse or consort, may fite her petition asking to be discharged from such relation. The court may, upon due hearing, adjudge and decree her to be discharged and freed from such relation, and give her possession and control of his minor children. together with such portion of the estate of the man for the support of berself and children. The bill provides that noth-ing in this section shall be construed as repealing, changing or annulling the existing laws against polygamy, and that the probate courts shall have jurisdiction only in cases of wills and estates of decedents, but shall not exercise any ther civil, or criminal, or equity juris tion in all actions for divorce or alimeny, and in all chancery cases or proceedings, all courts except the supreme, district, probate and justices courts are abolished. The last section disapproves and annuls the various acts passed in the legislative assemby, including the ordinance incorporating the church of Jesus Christ and Latter Day Saints; an act regulating the mode of procedure in civil cases in the courts of Utah; an act conferring upon women the elective franchise; an act for the organization of the militia in the Territory; an act prescribing the duties of selectmen and the

NEW YORK CITY. NEW YORK, February 27.—The temperance crusaders in New York are waiting for the storm in the west, and expect to begin work in earnest with the opening of next week. I ast night the Sons of Temperence gathered in mass-meeting, and in address Rev. C. W. Steel said that the mayor's wife, the district-attorney's wife, Mr. Crosby's wife, and Dr. John Hall's wife, could sweep the saloons before them as the first women of the Ohio towns were doing. On Monday, in the Seventeenth street Methodist church, temperance prayer-meeting, will be begun, and Sunday afternoon a temperance-experience meeting will be held in Forsyth-street church. Nearly two hundred ladies of high social standing in Jersey City met yesterday and organized a woman's temperance league. They are connected with the ladies' praying band that visits the saloons. Their plan is to district the city, visit the families, and urge the men, women, and children to sign the total abstinence pledge. At a massmeeting in Dr. Cuyler's church, in Brooklyn, Tuesday, Dr. Talmage, Dr. Buddington, and Dr. Duryea will speak. A few evenings later the Catholic temperance union, of Brooklyn, will have a in Indiana, an average of sixteen to great demonstration in the academy of each county. music, under the patronage of Bishop

After the adjournment, circulars were left at nearly every house, urging the organization of praying-bands. The women's nearly every house, urging the organization of praying-bands. The women's temperance movement is fairly started here. At nine o'clock this morning the bells were rung and the people, in large numbers, assembled at Library hall. Dio Lewis explained the manner of organizing and conducting the movement, ganizing and conducting the movement, and short speeches were made by cler gymen and prominent citizens. ladies of leading families were on the stage, and also spoke.

PHILADELPHIA, PENN. NEW YORK, February 27.—A dispatch from Philadelphia says the women's temperance crusade in that city and State continues to be the all-absorbing topic. The christian ladies of one portion of the city have perfected their plans. Between three hundred and five hundred women of the best society will take part in the war. It is expected that at least one thousand crusaders will be enlisted within a auspices of the temperance organiza-tion. The plan of operations will be similar to that adopted in Ohio. JERSEY CITY, N. J.

JERSEY CITY, February 27 .- A great ublic demonstration of the Catholics of lersey City was held last evening in St. Michael's church. Three thousand peo-ple were present. The president of the Catholic total abstinence union of America, Very Rev. Dean Byrne, of Trenton, made a most emphatic speech urging the Catholic citizens to arise and do battle against the great public foe of American liberty and of the christian religion. They owed it to the honor of their name to show how they could crush out the great evil now striking terror into the heart of every American patriot and christian man. He called Mrs. Gaines's Testimony before the Conupon them to take the religious abstinence pledge, as Archbishop Manning had done, and bishops and priests were NEW YORK, February 27.—A Washington dispatch says that Mrs. Myra Clarke Gaines, of New Orleans, has been before the sub-committee in the country. The crowd rose, and then knelt in front of the altar and took the pledge.

COLUMBUS, February 27.-The ladies temperance prayer-meetings are held daily, and still draw large houses, the one to-day being the largest of the season. The executive committee of ladies has been increased to about two hundred, but still no active campaign has been agreed on. Mass prayer-meet-ings—one for men and one for women are to be held on Sunday.

INDIANAPOLIS, IND. Indianapolis, February 27.—The prayer cure movement is rapidly taking shape here. A joint meeting of all the committees has been called for Monday lars. LIFE

Under Premises.

Under positive instructions to sell, without reserve, to the highest bidder, we shall offer, as above annonneed, that valuable ground at the intersection of the west side of Market Square with the south side of Windhester street, within hall square of Main street, being 74 feet on Winchester street by 56 feet depth, laid off in four lots fronting Windhester street. The lots are of small size, so as to place them in reach of a greater number of buyers, and so as to have no waste ground to be taxed. Their favorable location, so close to the great thoroughfare of Main street, renders them very eligible for shop-keepers, mechanics and others who find it necessary or convenient to unite their residence and business in the same house; and their close proximity to the intended site of the new courthouse affords a probability of larger increase of value in the early future than exists at present in regard to any other Memphis real estate.

Title warranted. Terms—half cash, six and twalve months, with interest secured we described to describe the described we described to the secured to describe the described to the secured to the secured to say other memphis real estate. INSURANCE COMPANY
